

The background image shows a restaurant interior. On the left, there are tables set with white cloths, glassware, and silverware. A large window with a white blind is visible, with a cactus and other plants on the sill. Two large, cylindrical, woven pendant lights hang from the ceiling. On the right, there is a dark wall with a wooden slat panel and a shelf displaying various decorative items like a clock, a bird figurine, and a teapot. Another similar pendant light hangs from the ceiling.
